

Let us pray:

God our Father, we give thanks to you for this new day and new year. We thank you for a fresh anointing and that old things have passed away and we can behold all things new. We thank you that you have brought us through yet another year and through it all your grace and mercy have sustained and kept us. We thank you, Lord, for our shepherd, Pastor Charles Jenkins, our founder, Reverend Clay Evans, our entire Fellowship family and all those connected to us.

Lord as we embark upon a new year, we thank you that we can enter into a new dawn, a fresh start, and a new freedom. We thank you, God, that you turn the pages of our lives and wash each day clean. Help us to feel that we can learn from the past in your safe arms and move on. Thank you, that you can write a new story on a fresh page for our lives. With you, we can find vision and hope again. Thank you for the price you paid that we always have a chance to begin again with you.

We ask, Lord, that as we take off the old and put on the new you will give us wisdom, knowledge and understanding. You will give us the right mind, right heart, right attitude, right spirit and that you will purify us so that in all we do, we do it as unto you. Lord, you have been good to us and we want to say thank you. There are no words that can fully describe our gratitude to you, God. It is in the majestic, magnanimous name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen! Amen
